

PASS Orientation

PASS's Right to Meet With New Hires

- Union PASS representatives are permitted up to two hours at agency-conducted new-hire employee orientation meetings in order to meet with new employees.
- This time should be used to explain the role and responsibilities of PASS.
- PASS's presentation at the new-hire orientation is confidential.
- No travel time, expenses or overtime is authorized for the orientation conducted by PASS.

Reference:

PASS/FAA CBAs: Article 9

